

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

JAMES EMANUEL DUDLEY III,

Plaintiff,

v.

PIERCE COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE, et al.,

Defendant.

CASE NO. 3:22-cv-05437-RSM-BAT

ORDER ON PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO EXTEND TIME TO RESPOND TO SUMMARY JUDGMENT

Plaintiff moves to extend the time to respond to summary judgment. Dkt. 40. Plaintiff states on March 10, 2023, he sent Defendant requests for admission, and the Court should extend the time to respond to summary judgment because the Court earlier extended the time to complete discovery to May 4, 2023. Plaintiff is incorrect. On February 17, 2023, the Court granted Plaintiff a second extension of the time to complete discovery and ordered all discovery requests be filed by March 6, 2023, and all discovery be completed by April 3, 2023. Dkt. 36. Plaintiff's March 10, 2023, request for admission is thus untimely, and not grounds to extend time to respond to summary judgment.

Plaintiff also indicates the Court should grant an extension because he "has limited time to Law Library Access." Plaintiff is a pro se prisoner and thus the Court grants him leeway based upon this ground. The Court accordingly ORDERS:

ORDER ON PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO
EXTEND TIME TO RESPOND TO
SUMMARY JUDGMENT - 1

- DATED this 31st day of March, 2023.

ORDER ON PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO
EXTEND TIME TO RESPOND TO
SUMMARY JUDGMENT - 2
